Encryption

POTOMAC AREA TECHNOLOGY AND COMPUTER SOCIETY, Inc.

Jim Rhodes

Overview

- A practical demonstration of ways to encrypt files/folders using:
  - Zip
  - AxCrypt
  - AES Crypt
  - Safehouse Explorer
  - SanDisk SecureAccess
  - Windows

Source

Data for this presentation was derived from

BEST FREE FILE ENCRYPTION UTILITY

an article at www.techsupportalert.com

(http://bit.ly/11QbV8r)

Categories

1 Files/Folders Directly

2 Virtual-Drive Utilities

3 Full-Drive Utilities

4 Client-Side (Cloud) Utilities

Related Articles

- Encryption is Not Enough

- Best Free Drive Encryption Utility

- Best Free Encrypted Virtual Drive Utility

- Best Free Encryption Utility for Cloud Storage

- Best Free Encryption Utility for Personal Use at Work

Reminders

- Residuals – copies/remnants of encrypted files may exist in swap files, temp files, hibernation files, erased files, browser artifacts, etc.

- Passwords – use strong passwords. Password strength can be tested at http://bit.ly/1fHVk8D

Microsoft Windows

- Encrypting File System (EFS)
  - Cipher.exe (NTFS)

- BitLocker Drive Encryption

  Discussion: http://bit.ly/1pvrZFY